State and Local Procurement Restrictions

Sankofa Freedom Academy Charter School follows Pennsylvania state and local procurement requirements in accordance with the Pennsylvania Public School Code (24 P.S. 7-751 et seq.) and the schools board-approved purchasing policies. The school's procedures require a formal competitive-bidding process for contracts exceeding the state-mandated threshold (currently $22,500). This RFP and Form 470 posting constitute the open and competitive bidding process required under both state and federal E-Rate rules. During the 28-day competitive-bidding window, all potential service providers must direct questions only in writing via email to the designated contact listed in the RFP. All questions and responses will be made publicly available through addenda posted under this Form 470 or on the school's website.
