| Price                            |                                              | 30                    | Vendor's cost of products and services                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Other                            | Prior experience, including past performance | 20                    | Prior experience of vendor and client references. This will be based on both MCDC's prior experience with the vendor as well as that of other similarly situated healthcare organizations.                                                 |
| Project management plan          |                                              | 25                    | This includes indirect costs to implement proposed services, MCDC's personnel time required, vendor's demonstrated ability to mitigate downtime during migration, and timeliness in making a transition.                                   |
| Contract modification provisions |                                              | 25                    | Contract has provisions to upgrade and/or downgrade and allowances for service substitutions as needs dictate without penalty or extending the term, and contract explicitly allows for voluntary extensions at the end of the first term. |

Does the HCP have any disqualifying factors that will remove bids or bidders from consideration? Yes

Disqualifying factors:

1. Vendors must provide services that are compatible with existing network
2. Vendors must be actively participating in the program with an active SPIN.
