Does the HCP have any disqualifying factors that will remove bids or bidders from consideration?: Yes

Disqualifying factors:

The determination of whether an offer is responsive, complete, and compliant with the requirements of this posting shall be made solely at the discretion of the designated evaluators, and such determinations shall be final and not subject to appeal or further review. Offers may be deemed non-responsive and disqualified, in whole or in part, for any reason identified by the evaluators, including but not limited to unsolicited, AI, or SPAM-based submissions, failure to follow required submission procedures, failure to provide requested information, certifications, or documentation, failure to submit required signed documents, material inconsistencies with CHC requirements, or submission after the stated deadline. Additionally, only bids from vendors possessing a valid USAC 498 ID (SPIN) at the time of submission will be accepted. All vendors must certify full compliance with 47 CFR § 54.9 regarding prohibitions on Universal Service Fund support for equipment or services produced by covered companies, affirm compliance with 47 CFR § 54.10 prohibiting the use of federal subsidies on communications equipment or services listed on the FCC's Covered List, and adhere strictly to all applicable USAC Rural Health Care Program rules and federal procurement standards.
